

Praises and Prayer Requests

April 24, 2016

Western Classis' Day of Prayer for Home Mission Works

Valle de Gracia Mission Work, Shafter, CA (Spanish language outreach)

Pastor Valentin Alpuche

Prayer Requests:

- That Pastor Alpuche would not become discouraged, but trust in God's promise to build his church
- That the Lord would add new families who are committed to the truth
- That those who come would not be deterred by others
- That the proclamation of the Word on Sunday and Wednesday gatherings would result in changed lives to the glory of God
- That God would use Pastor Alpuche's radio ministry to advance the work of the gospel
- That the Lord would bless Pastor Alpuche's family
- That God would use Pastor Alpuche whenever he has an opportunity to share the gospel

Calvary Reformed Chapel, Stockton, CA

Pastor Jonathan Merica

Praises:

- For the fact that God has established a Reformed witness in Stockton
- For the possibility of a new facility in which to meet
- For the financial support and prayers of the Western Classis and RCUS
- For the bond of unity, love and faithfulness within the congregation

Prayer Requests:

- That God would send a reformation to heal the city spiritually and to call many to salvation
- That the Lord would bless us with many visitors and new members
- That the Lord would bless our teaching and preaching of his Word, our distribution of literature, and our personal witness
- That the Lord would raise up elders and deacons to serve the congregation

Rehoboth Reformed Church, Los Angeles

Pastor Michael Voytek

Praises:

- For the faithful prayers and support of the RCUS
- For the attendance of many visitors
- For the faithfulness of our members and long-term visitors
- For the provision of three elders and one deacon
- For the opportunity to meet on Sundays at Cerritos Elementary School

- For office space and classrooms at the Lutheran church across the street from the school
- For the personal witness of our members

Prayer Requests:

- That we would be faithful in our preaching, teaching and application of God's Word
- That the Lord would give wisdom to the Consistory and Spiritual Council
- That the Lord would raise up more officers to serve the congregation
- That our outreach to Cerritos College (including seven Bible studies) would be used by God to bring students to Christ with the possibility of joining Rehoboth Reformed Church
- That God would give us wisdom and success in reaching the lost in the greater LA area
- That the Lord would provide an additional twelve families that we might become a completely self-supporting church.
- That the four individuals who are currently in membership instruction would join the church, and that other visitors would desire to become members
- That the Lord would grant us a permanent church facility
- That the Lord would grant healing to those with serious health concerns
- That the Lord would provide employment for those who are unemployed
